MEMORANDUM

Rashtriya Madhyamik Siksha Abhiyan (RMSA), a centrally Sponsored Scheme for achieving the goal of universalisation of Secondary Education by 2017 was launched in the State of West Bengal in the year 2009. A similar programme, (SSA) towards fulfilling the objectives of RTE is also being implemented in the State.

In order to implement the activities of Rashtriya Madhyamik Siksha Abhiyan suitable set up both at the State & District levels are required.

The issue was discussed in the 2nd meeting of Executive Committee, West Bengal Rashtriya Madhyamik Siksha Mission held on 31.12.2014 and it was decided that the existing set up of PBSSM both at State and District level would share the responsibilities of implementing Rashtriya Madhyamik Siksha Abhiyan in the State.

Accordingly it is hereby ordered that –

- 1 The District Project Officer, Sarba Siksha Mission will act as District Project Officer (DPO), Rashtriya Madhyamik Siksha Abhiyan
- 2 The District Inspector of Schools (S.E.) will act as District Project Co-ordinator (DPC) of Rashtriya Madhyamik Siksha Abhiyan.
- 3 All the staff of existing District Project Office, Paschim Banga Sarba Siksha Mission will assist the District Project Officer in implementing Rashtriya Madhyamik Siksha Abhiyan activities.
- 4 All activities will be supervised and monitored by the District Magistrate in the capacity of District Project Director (DPD).
